

Monday: No school

Tuesday: Learn about French culture and basic classroom expressions

1. Bellwork: Student Interest form
2. Hand out syllabi and go over
 - a. Class structure
 - b. Rules
 - c. Grading
 - d. Attendance
3. Check out books and workbooks
4. Applicable classroom objects and locations
 - Classroom routines and student expressions (e.g., “Where is...?”)
 - Teacher expressions (e.g., “Take out ...”)
 - Greeting and leave taking
 - Basic courtesy expressions
 - French alphabet
 - The French-speaking world
 - French names
4. Geo-culture: L'Île de France information
5. As-tu compris?
6. Homework = Parent signature for syllabus

Wednesday: Greet someone and say goodbye; ask how someone is; ask someone's name

1. Bellwork = Compare and contrast L'Île de France with the US
2. Take up signed syllabi and review day 1 material
3. Using the photo
4. Intro. To vocabulary 1
5. Télé-vocab
6. Individual work: Activity 1
7. Listening activity 2
8. Group activities 3 and 4
9. Intro. To Exprimons-nous
10. Listening activity 5
11. Homework = Complete activities 6-8 on pages 8 and 9 in textbook

Thursday: Use numbers 0-30; introduce someone; ask how old someone is; use subjects and verbs

1. Bellwork = Unscramble words to create sentences
2. Take up homework and review day 2 material
3. Intro. To numbers 0-30
4. Listening activity 11
5. Individual practice – activities 12 and 13
6. Teaching: introducing someone and asking how old someone is
7. Activity 14 as a class
8. Role-playing activity
9. Intro. To Grammar = Subjects and verbs
10. View Grammavision
11. Do activity 17 as a class
12. Homework: Study for vocabulary 1 quiz

Friday: Use subject pronouns; learn about francophone culture

1. Bellwork: Complete activities 18-20 on page 13
2. Review Grammar and vocabulary
3. Take vocabulary 1 quiz
4. Subject pronouns lesson
5. Individual practice – activity 21
6. Listening practice – activity 22
7. Class participation – activities 23-24
8. Roleplaying 25
9. Culture lesson – les gestes and greetings
10. Homework: Have a great weekend!